

Commanditaires/Sponsors

Institute of Gender and Health
Canadian Institutes of Health Research
Office of the Vice President, Research
University of Ottawa
Faculty of Social Sciences and Faculty of Health Sciences
University of Ottawa
AMS Nursing History Research Unit
University of Ottawa
Institute of Canadian Studies
University of Ottawa
Institute of Population Health, MSc Health Systems
University of Ottawa
Federation of Medical Women of Canada
Bridgehead Coffee
Bread & Sons Bakery
Women's Worlds 2011

Merci/Thank-you

Norm Barwin
Hélène Boudreault
Emma Burgess
Angela Cameron
Grace Charbonneau
Margot Charbonneau
Anne Dagenais Guertin
Raywat Deonandan
Yves Frenette
Ruby Heap
François Houle
Corinne Mason
Natalie McMullen

Marcel Merette
Alexandra Mogyoros
Mona Nemer
Michèle Phillips
Denis Prud'homme
Amy Rowsell
Vivien Runnels
Heidi Sveistrup
Claire Turenne-Sjolander
Lesley Voellmecke
Amanda Watson
Jocelyn Wentland

LES GRANDS ESPOIRS GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Une rétrospective des 50 ans de la contraception orale

A 50-year retrospective on oral contraception

Conférencier d'honneur / Keynote speaker
Carl Djerassi, Ph.D., Stanford University

3 juillet 2011 / 8:30 h à 16:30 h
Pavillon Desmarais, Université d'Ottawa
55, av. Laurier Est, salle 4101

July 3, 2011 / 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
University of Ottawa, Desmarais Building
55 Laurier Ave. East, Room 4101

WWW.WOMENSWORLDS.CA

8:30-9:15

PETIT DÉJEUNER ET INSCRIPTION/BREAKFAST AND REGISTRATION

9:15-9:30

ACCUEIL/WELCOME

Dr. Christabelle Sethna, Institute of Women's Studies/
Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Ottawa

Jessica Yee, Executive Director, Native Youth Sexual Health Network

9:30-10:30

CONFÉRENCIER D'HONNEUR/KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Carl Djerassi, Emeritus Professor of Chemistry, Stanford University
The Pill: Birth and Survival

10:30-11:00

PAUSE/BREAK

11:00-12:30

PANEL

Leçons d'histoire : 50 ans de contraception orale/
History Lessons: 50 Years of Oral Contraception

Présidente de session/Chair: Anne Dagenais Guertin,
Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa

Dr. Lara Marks, Cambridge University
Panacea or Poisoned Chalice? A History of the Contraceptive Pill

Dr. Elizabeth Watkins, University of California at San Francisco
How The Pill Became a Lifestyle Drug: The Pharmaceutical Industry and Birth Control Since 1960

Dr. Denyse Baillargeon, Université de Montréal
La pilule et le Québec dans les années 1960: faut-il parler de révolution contraceptive?

12:30-1:30

DÉJEUNER/LUNCH

1:30-2:45

PANEL

Travaux de première ligne : leçons apprises de la pratique/
On the Front-Lines: Lessons from Practice

Présidente de session/Chair: Corinne Mason,
Institute of Women's Studies, University of Ottawa

Dr. Janet Dollin, Physician, Central Ottawa Family
Medicine Associates

Your Pill Choice: A Family Physician's Perspective on Choice and Safety of Hormonal Contraception in 2011 and Beyond

Dr. Louise Belanger-Hardy, Associate Professor,
Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa
The Law and the Pill: An Overview

Dr. Catherine Megill, Medical Resident,
Unité de Médecine Familiale à Gatineau
Préconceptions et méconceptions sur la contraception

2:45-3:00

PAUSE/BREAK

3:00-4:15

PANEL

Travaux de première ligne : leçons apprises sur le terrain/
On the Front-Lines: Lessons from the Field

Président de session/Chair: Dr. Raywat Deonandan,
Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Ottawa

Sandeep Prasad, Executive Director,
Action Canada for Population and Development

Justine McNulty, Addictions Counselor, Dave Smith Youth
Treatment Centre

Determining the Accessibility of Plan B® in Ontario:
Pharmacists' Attitudes and Emergency Contraception

Agathe Gramet-Kedzior, Acting Executive Director,
Canadians for Choice/Association Canadienne
pour la liberté de choix

Les voix des femmes font face à une grossesse non-planifiée

4:15-4:30

CLOTÛRE/CLOSING

Dr. Norm Barwin, Director, Women's Health, Infertility,
PMS and Midlife Centre, Ottawa

Dr. Christabelle Sethna, Institute of Women's Studies/
Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Ottawa